

DelsuTools Generated Past Questions

GST 111: Communication in English I

Department: English and Literary Studies | Faculty: Arts

Level: 100 | Semester: Harmattan | Session: 2019/2020

1. Question 1: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

2. Question 2: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

3. Question 3: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

4. Question 4: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

5. Question 5: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

6. Question 6: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

7. Question 7: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

8. Question 8: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

9. Question 9: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

10. Question 10: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

11. Question 11: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

12. Question 12: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

13. Question 13: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

14. Question 14: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

15. Question 15: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

16. Question 16: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

17. Question 17: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

18. Question 18: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

19. Question 19: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

20. Question 20: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

21. Question 21: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

22. Question 22: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

23. Question 23: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

24. Question 24: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

25. Question 25: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

26. Question 26: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

27. Question 27: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

28. Question 28: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

29. Question 29: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

30. Question 30: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

31. Question 31: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

32. Question 32: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

33. Question 33: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are

- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

34. Question 34: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

35. Question 35: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

36. Question 36: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

37. Question 37: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

38. Question 38: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject.

'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

39. Question 39: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

40. Question 40: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

41. Question 41: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

42. Question 42: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

43. Question 43: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

44. Question 44: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

45. Question 45: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

46. Question 46: Choose the word that has the correct spelling.

- A. Embarass
- B. Embarras
- C. Embarrass
- D. Embaras

Answer: C

Explanation: 'Embarrass' is spelled with double 'r' and double 's'.

47. Question 47: What is the antonym of the word 'BENEVOLENT'?

- A. Kind
- B. Malevolent
- C. Generous
- D. Indifferent

Answer: B

Explanation: Benevolent means well-meaning and kindly. Its antonym is malevolent, meaning having a wish to do evil.

48. Question 48: Complete the sentence: 'Neither the teacher nor the students _____ present.'

- A. is
- B. are
- C. was
- D. has been

Answer: B

Explanation: Under the rule of proximity, the verb agrees with the closer subject. 'students' is plural, so we use 'are'.

49. Question 49: Identify the figure of speech in: 'The wind whispered secrets in my ear.'

- A. Metaphor
- B. Simile
- C. Personification
- D. Hyperbole

Answer: C

Explanation: Giving human attributes (whispering) to non-human entities (the wind) is personification.

50. Question 50: Which card in the library catalog lists books by their subjects?

- A. Title card
- B. Author card
- C. Subject card
- D. Accession card

Answer: C

Explanation: The subject card lists library materials based on their academic subject areas.

delsutools.ng